Shadrach & Hopey Rogers settled in GeorgeTown District of South Carolina in the 1780's; we have documented proof of our Shadrach having a wife "Hopey" and their migrating to Covington County, Mississippi. He and his offspring all moved out of South Carolina and headed West in the early 1800's. Two sons headed their wagons to West Florida (Louisiana) as soon as the lands opened up there. Shadrach and his family moved into what is now Covington County, Mississippi. Some of the allied families moved into Georgia, Alabama, and other parts of Mississippi. Soon, some of the Mississippi family members got itchy feet and scattered into Texas, Missouri, and Arkansas. This book covers all family branches of Shadrach and Hopey's family.

Depending on the family branch, their last name was spelled Rogers or Rodgers, and sometimes both. Over 5,000 family members are recorded with a total of over 1,000 family surnames. Allied families include Ainsworth, Barfield, Barnes, Biglane, Bradford, Buchanan, Carr, Craft, Doughty, Duckworth, Haralson, Hinton, Hobgood, Keyes, Keys, Knighton, Norwood, Pickering, Powers, Rawls, Reeve, Sample, Sandefur, Scott, Somervell, Speed, Spell, Sunlin, Taylor, Thames, Thompson, Wagner, Welch, West, White, Williamson and Worthy.

This material is not just a listing of names... it includes data researched over the past 30 years: census records, land records, deeds, military records, and wills plus many family anecdotes along the way. There are hundreds of family photos and scanned documents. Dozens of our family researchers have contributed their family information and photos.

Over 1,000 pages, full-name index, offset printing, 8 1/2" x 11" library-quality bound hardcover.

Price: $ 68.95 plus $11.95 shipping & handling for a total of $79.90.
